

I oppose the use of cellphones onboard commercial or chartered aircraft while in the air. The proximity of passenger one to the other means conversations will be a problem for anyone trying to get some quiet time, concentrate on reading etc, or sleeping. I find airline flight time useful for all those reasons. Many proximate passengers using cell phones would be a nuisance and disturbance to me. Don't allow the use of cellphones inflight.